Nothing conjures the festive season like a performance of Handel's Messiah. It contains some of the most uplifting, touching, and magnificent music ever composed. It transcends cultural, geographic, and religious boundaries with its message of charity, peace, goodwill, and sacrifice.

Gerry van Wyck once again leads the Pacific Spirit Choir, a stellar cast of soloists and Vancouver's top professional instrumentalists in the excellent acoustics of West Vancouver United Church. Join us for this performance to experience the intimacy and expanse of Handel's beloved choral masterpiece.
